

Table with multiple columns, likely a data entry form or ledger. The table has approximately 10 columns and several rows. It includes fields for dates, numerical values, and descriptive text. The table is part of a larger form structure.

Two small rectangular boxes, possibly checkboxes or buttons, located below the first table.

Table with multiple columns, likely a data entry form or ledger. The table has approximately 10 columns and several rows. It includes fields for dates, numerical values, and descriptive text. The table is part of a larger form structure.

Two small rectangular boxes, possibly checkboxes or buttons, located below the second table.

Table with multiple columns, likely a data entry form or ledger. The table has approximately 10 columns and several rows. It includes fields for dates, numerical values, and descriptive text. The table is part of a larger form structure.

Two small rectangular boxes, possibly checkboxes or buttons, located below the third table.

Table titled "CALCULO DEL IMPORTE" (Calculation of Amount). It has a header section and several rows of data. The table is used for calculating financial amounts based on input data.

Table titled "CALCULO DEL IMPORTE" (Calculation of Amount). It has a header section and several rows of data. The table is used for calculating financial amounts based on input data.

